$120,000 donated to charity

In the 12 days prior to Christmas Auckland Airport distributed $120,000 to 12 charities in a bid to spread some Christmas holiday goodwill.

The donations were made possible by the generosity of Auckland Airport's travellers who donated their loose change in donation globes positioned throughout the airport. Over the course of a year more than $100,000 is collected in almost 100 different currencies.

The donation promotion created a great deal of interest with 325 charities applying for a slice of Christmas cheer. The difficult job of whittling the list down to just 12 was a team effort with local mayors and senior management involved in the selection process.

This is the first time the airport has distributed the donations in this manner, says Chief Executive Simon Moutter.

Day 1 Auckland's SPCA

Auckland SPCA's general manager David Lloyd Barker and Auckland Airport's Simon Moutter. The money will be used to fulfil the SPCA's 2009 dream of establishing a small animal adoption area at their animal village in Mangere.

Day 5 WaterSafe

Sandy Harrop and Fa'avae Gagamoe from WaterSafe with Auckland Airport's Simon Moutter. This generous donation is being used to enhance the Aquatic Programme in schools, teaching children about our harbours, surf beaches, waterways and life jacket use.

Day 9 Pohutukawa Coast Community Association

Manukau City Mayor Len Brown and Kane Glass from Pohutukawa Coast Community Association will use the donated funds to kick-start the native replanting of Whitford Forest in South Auckland.

Day 2 Age Concern Auckland

Age Concern's Grant Withers used the $10,000 to buy Santa Saks for some of Auckland's older citizens. Age Concern is a national charity which works to promote quality of life for older people.

Day 6 Ronald McDonald House South Island

Families with children requiring hospital treatment in Christchurch come from all over the South Island and stay at the free accommodation. The house will use the donation to give the 'teenagers only' room a makeover.

Day 10 Life Flight Trust

Auckland Airport's Judy Nicholl and Ian Lauder from Life Flight NZ. This summer alone at least 360 people, four every day, are expected to require their life saving assistance, 30% of these will be children. Without donations like this the Life Flight service simply could not operate.

"We decided to do a Christmas promotion and give sizeable, meaningful chunks to 12 charities at a tough time of the year. We opened it to the whole of New Zealand as we feel the people who put the money in the globes have probably had the enjoyment of travelling the length of our beautiful country."

Given the huge interest in the promotion, the airport will be repeating the process at the end of this year. Applications will open online in November. Any registered charity is eligible to apply. Please view our website www.aucklandairport.co.nz for more details.

Day 3 Refugee Services Aotearoa

The team from Refugee Services Aotearoa New Zealand has assisted more than 40,000 refugees to build new futures here. This money is being used to raise awareness, and attract and train more refugee volunteers.

Day 7 Youthline

Youthline is redeveloping the Old Papatoetoe Fire Station into a vibrant, youth-centred community facility. This donation will be used to help cover some of the set-up costs of the new phone and IT systems.

Day 11 YHA New Zealand

Mark Wells and Shelley Keach from YHA tell us this money will be used to help build a sustainable hostel on Stewart Island. The hostel will be built to promote sustainability by using solar water-heating panels, grey water recycling in the bathrooms and extensive general waste recycling.

Day 4 Auckland Women's Refuge

Women's Refuge cares for women and their children who have suffered from domestic violence. Auckland staff Maxine Revell and Donna Hill Ca used the money to treat families to a special Christmas.

Day 8 West Auckland Hospice

Auckland Airport's Charles Spillane and the team from West Auckland Hospice. The hospice is using the donation to purchase a Toyota Hiace van to deliver much needed equipment to people's homes.

Day 12 Auckland City Mission

Auckland Airport's Tony Frankham and the team from the Auckland City Mission. It was a hard year. This Christmas the mission gave out 1,000 food parcels, hosted New Zealand's largest family Christmas dinner and distributed 25,000 presents to Auckland children and their families.

Right: John Vazey and Gillian Danilo moved in together a few months after meeting and became engaged in 2003. They haven't set a wedding date yet, as they spend a lot of time working on their house and travelling around the Pacific.

Introducing... John Vazey and Gillian Danilo

With Valentine's Day just around the corner, the Airport Times hunted out one of the many airport couples who will be celebrating this year.

John Vazey and Gillian Danilo first met at an airport staff party nearly seven years ago. Although they both worked for Auckland Airport, John as an airport emergency services officer and Gillian in the customer service department, they hadn't crossed paths before that night.

"I remember thinking he was cute and that he made me laugh," Gillian says.

John jokes that he first noticed her legs but "then we got talking and there was a definite connection between us. It's really nice that we are a couple but that we are also best friends. We encourage and bring out the best in each other," John says.

The couple doesn't believe living and working together is a problem for them. In fact, Gillian believes it can be quite beneficial. "We can talk about our day and understand where the other person is coming from.

It gives us a commonality. Sometimes it even helps us to find better work solutions between our two departments."

Both claim they are not romantic, and that for them it is enough to spend time relaxing together. With four children from previous relationships, they enjoy spending time with them on outings or at home.

Not content to live and work together, John and Gillian run a small business selling a product John has invented called the 'Hang 'n Clean' - a patented attachment for household buckets that allows the easy cleaning and storage of paintbrushes.

Emirates behind Team New Zealand

Emirates, the Dubai-based global airline, continues to support New Zealand and the sport of sailing with its successful partnership with Emirates Team New Zealand.

According to Gary Chapman, president group services, Emirates Group, "The company's participation underlines our commitment to the New Zealand market, in which we are now a key player with four wide-bodied services a day from New Zealand to Dubai and beyond via Australia.

"When we first backed the team in 2004 we saw in it many features that we could relate to, including its drive, focus and competitiveness. The team continues to also seek excellence in all aspects of its operation and in all these respects we feel there a strong compatibility with Emirates as an award-winning international airline."

Auckland Airport wishes Emirates Team New Zealand the best of luck in the Louis Vuitton Pacific Series.

Right: Crews will take turns in racing one-on-one in Emirates Team New Zealand's NZL 92 and NZL 84 and BMW Oracle Racing's USA 87 and USA 98.

What's on in Auckland?

30 January - 14 February 2009

the event, complete with a new cup.

The inaugural Louis Vuitton Pacific Series has just set sail with the best of international yachting finally back on the water. Louis Vuitton has joined forces with Emirates Team New Zealand to create Ten international teams from nine countries are taking part in the series, making it the most outstanding gathering of international sailing teams since the Louis Vuitton Cup in Auckland in 2003. Racing will be on short courses within the inner harbour - so it will be very accessible for public viewing. The best place to view the racing from the land is North Head; and if you're viewing from the water, you're best to stay around the start line - the quick short legs mean you'll be able to see the teams up the course from there. First races of the day start at 10am.

Each team will have one race per day – and because the teams will be racing on very similar boats, this series is all about the skill of the crew, not of the boat-builders!

On yer bike...

It's the second anniversary of Lift and we're encouraging everyone to "Get On Yer Bike!" on 18 February.

Auckland Airport's travel plan Lift celebrates its second anniversary this month and we're teaming up with Bike Wise Month and Manukau City Council's Road Safety Team to encourage people to travel to work differently.

We'll be holding a Go By Bike Day breakfast on Wednesday 18 February between 8am-9.30am in the international public car park for all those who take part in the Lift programme.

Free food, drinks and spot prizes will be provided to cyclists, bus users and carpoolers. Look out for the marquee near the parking attendant's booth - you should smell the bangers! Remember to bring your bikes, Lift passes and bus tickets with you.

Go By Bike Day is a day when New Zealanders, young and old, are encouraged to cycle to school or work. The event links nicely with our Lift travel plan which has gone from strength to strength since it was launched.

With over 600 registered carpoolers and more staff taking advantage of the improved and new bus services, we're making a great team effort in reducing congestion and pollution!

So leave the car in the garage, pump up the bike tyres, don the fluoro, get out there, get fit and have some fun getting to work!

Hammers and nails

It's the start of a new year and we're all making New Year resolutions, but it's also an opportune time to reflect on some of the highlights of the past vear.

The airport was a hive of construction activity during 2008, some of the achievements included:

- Major earthworks began on the northern runway.
- The new international arrivals area opened on April Fool's Day with no hitches! And we now have one of the largest arrivals duty-free stores in the world.
- A new roundabout was constructed on George Bolt Memorial Drive.
- Over 2,000 tonnes of concrete and 1,500 tonnes of asphalt were laid in the relocation of Ray Emery Drive, construction of a new roundabout and expansion of the international terminal's public car park.

October and Qantas dropped in official opening.

- The low-cost Park & Ride car park opened just in time for Santa.
- The domestic terminal introduced a few new stores and the Qantas/ Pacific Blue baggage claim area was expanded.

• The new pier was unveiled in with its A380 aircraft to attend the

Park & Ride

Planning to go away for a few days or several weeks? Auckland Airport's new Park & Ride car park is now open and offers long-term, low-cost parking for all domestic and international travellers.

Located on George Bolt Memorial Drive, at the roundabout with Verissimo Drive, the service offers a free 24-hour, seven-days-a-week courtesy shuttle that whisks travellers to and from the terminal buildings. There's also a purpose-built waiting lounge at the car park, full-time parking staff on-site and security monitoring.

Right: Emirates has a record 58 Airbus A380s on order. Those flying to New Zealand will have 489 seats – 14 suites for first class passengers, 76 business class seats, and 399 in economy class.

New bird for our skies

The giant double-decker A380 aircraft will be gracing Auckland's skies three times a week, thanks to Dubai-based Emirates airline.

The Emirates A380, which features unique onboard shower spas, lounge and the privacy of first-class suites, will fly between Auckland and Dubai via Sydney from 2 February on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays. With a connection to the existing A380 service from Dubai to Heathrow, Emirates will be the only airline able to offer the A380 all the way from Auckland to London.

On the other four days of the week, the Auckland-Sydney-Dubai service will be flown by the Boeing 777-200 Long Range version. Departing Auckland at 6.45pm, both types of aircraft will maintain the same timetable through to Dubai.

Emirates New Zealand manager Chris Lethbridge says, "It is the airline's intention to operate the A380 daily out of Auckland as soon as there are sufficient aircraft of that type in the fleet. This would have occurred in February, but there have been delays in deliveries.

"There is tremendous interest in the A380 in New Zealand and we have no doubt it will be a great success operating out of Auckland."

Put Bluecoats Vic Francis and Peter Maxwell in a room and you will get more than just airport help.

The two gentlemen recently returned from a successful barbershop singing competition held in Honolulu, Hawaii, and managed to bring home both a gold and a silver medal.

Vic (lead) and Peter (baritone) are members of the City of Sails Barbershop Chorus and New Zealand's Northern Region Chorus and were competing against 16 other international groups in the Pan Pacific competition.

The plane truth...

It's the month of love so tell us your favourite romantic destination...

Jenn Rowsell – farewelling stepdaughter

I love the Coral Coast in Fiji. We spent a lot of the winter there in a house we bought on TradeMe. It's a romantic destination and is only three hours from here.

Nicky Douglas – Kiwi returning from Bangkok

Luang Prabang in Laos is my most romantic spot. Even though it's Third World, it's a stunning location, with few tourists and still has a French influence.

Welcome, Mr Beckham

David Beckham brought some excitement to the international terminal recently when he flew into Auckland with his LA Galaxy team-mates.

Around 40 media and a collection of fans turned out to see the world's most famous footballer. Beckham got into the spirit of the Maori welcome and performed a hongi with a young member of the Te Waihono a Kupe Aotearoa kapa haka troupe.

One group of young fans got up at 1am to make sure they had the perfect spot to see David Beckham arrive. The LA Galaxy played the Oceania All Stars team at Mt Smart Stadium and won 3-0.

Championing green technology

In support of all things green, Auckland Airport put up its hand to sponsor the sustainability and clean technology award at the 2008 New Zealand Engineering Excellence Awards.

Great gift idea

If you're looking for a unique story, look no further than the new book on Te Manukanuka o Hoturoa Marae.

The 32-page souvenir book is adorned with magnificent photographs of the airport Marae and shares the stories of each beautiful carving. Learn about Hoturoa, the captain of the Tainui waka whom the Marae is named after, and how the Marae was constructed. At just $8 per book, this makes for a great gift. To order copies of this publication please email airportmarae@akl-airport.co.nz

Ken Mutch – Aucklander farewelling his nephew I think Maui is a very romantic place. It's quiet, caters for tourists, has great food and nice people. My wife thought I was very romantic while we were there!

Anne Singe – general manager of HMSC-AIAL

I love the Sheraton Resort in Fiji. My husband and I renewed our vows there on our 25th wedding anniversary. It has a great climate, beautiful people and stunning sunsets.

Craig Macvicar – Scottish tourist leaving NZ

I think the French Alps in the summer. I was there last in 2007 while doing a motorcycle trip through Europe and it is a beautiful and remote location.
