

We are making changes

Commercial access to the domestic terminal is being improved

There are more passengers than ever coming through our terminal

We are expanding the capacity for commercial traffic to move through the domestic forecourt

New commercial transport access leading to the forecourt

Commercial drop-off available at both forecourts

Designated areas for all Transport operators

Increased public transport options

Bigger bus pick-up areas

New bus layover for easy access to the forecourt

What do I need to know?

Take the time to understand what changes are happening and what this means for you.

From 4 December 2017

- Commercial traffic will now enter the domestic forecourt via the new commercial access off Laurence Stevens Drive
- You will not be able to access the Air New Zealand domestic forecourt from any other road
- There will be specific lanes designated for all operators - see map
- Class B Rental Cars, Hotels and Park&Ride operators pick-up relocated to Jetstar end of the terminal
- New drop-off area for taxis at the Jetstar end of the terminal in addition to the Air New Zealand forecourt
- Pre-chartered taxis pick-up only available from the Jetstar forecourt
- All buses entering the airport from the north will turn left at Tom Pearce Drive /then right into Geoffrey Roberts Road and right at the Laurence Stephens Drive roundabout - then left into the new commercial access
- There is a new bus only layover area along the new commercial access
- Your RFID will be programmed to allow you access to the correct lane
- An additional exit lane is available for commercial traffic leaving the forecourt onto George Bolt Memorial Drive

What is staying the same?

- On demand taxis will pick-up from the same lane on the Air New Zealand forecourt
- Public pick-up and drop-off area is unchanged
